

GRAND SURRENDER SALE

AFTER A VERY PROFITABLE AND SUCCESSFUL FALL SEASON

We now surrender to the public all profits and a great part of the cost of Fall and Winter Goods yet on hand, thereby giving to our many patrons, and to those who will follow the masses and become our patrons, a lot of merchandise, aggregating to

ONE - HUNDRED - THOUSAND - DOLLARS.

At such astounding low prices, that for the next twenty days, our store will be thronged with eager buyers from morning until night. Avail your selves of an opportunity that has never been offered to you since Wichita become a trading center. There is no non-sense or blow advertisement about this sale; 'tis a pure bona fide surrender of all profits, and a great part of the cost on each and every article advertised. When you read this advertisement, you will begin to realize that we are very nearly offering these goods for nothing, at the same time giving you a coupon with every one dollar purchase redeemable in silverware.

PLACE A FIVE DOLLAR BILL IN YOUR PURSE

Call at the store with it and see the wonderful power so small an amount will have in making your purchases.

SALE CONTINUES TWENTY DAYS. BIG MONEY IN YOUR POCKET; BIG LOSS TO US.

But we will sell them and get money out of them to buy fresh new spring goods that can now be bought at such great sacrifice for cash.

SURRENDER SALE

CLOAKS.

In this department we will not only surrender all the profits, but are willing to make the greatest loss, as we have positively determined to close every garment in stock at some kind of price rather than carry them over.

We received a great many new cloaks just before the holidays, which will be the thing the coming season, so if you will buy one at this surrender sale you will have a stylish garment next fall.

Underwear.

The knife has been run in to the handle, cutting prices to the very heart.

Here, as in the cloak department, we mean to make a clean sweep of the stock. For instance: We will sell:

Ladies' Union Suits, former price, 95c; Surrender sale, 59c.

Misses' Union Suits, worth 125c; surrender sale, 50c.

GRAND SURRENDER SALE

MILLINERY.

Of course every lady realizes that each season brings out its own peculiar style and goods carried from the preceding season are therefore almost worthless; for that reason more than any other we have decided to surrender to the public what millinery we have left at prices that we believe to move every hat, flower and fancy feather we have.

All untrimmed hats sold heretofore from 74 to 90c will now be surrendered at 1c.

All untrimmed hats sold formerly at $1.20 to $1.50, during this surrender sale, 19c.

100 beautifully trimmed fancy turbans and toques, which you would have considered cheap enough at $3.00, during this surrender sale, 29c.
